Your equipment and products and their safekeeping are your sole responsibility.
12. The Vendor agrees that the Steer Friends is not liable for any failure of or delay in the performance of this agreement for the period that such failure or delay is due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to, acts of God, storm, natural disaster, acts of terrorism, utility outages or interruptions, strikes or labour disputes, or any other force majeure event.

Insurance

The organizers are not responsible for the safety of any vendor or other property of the vendor or other person, for the loss, damage or destruction by theft or fire or any cause or for the loss damage or injury sustained by any vendor or other persons. This is whether because of any default in the vendor outdoor space caused by fire, storm, Tempest, lightning, explosion, national emergency, war, labour disputes, strikes, lockouts, civil disturbances, inevitable accident or for any other cause not within the direct control of the organizers whether of the same kind or not. No responsibility can be accepted for any consequences of prevention, postponement, or abandonment of the event. While the organizers will endeavour to protect vendor property while on display at the event, it must be clearly understood that the venue, the organizing committee, and the organizers cannot accept liability for any loss or damage to property sustained or occasioned by any cause whatsoever. The organizer shall not be responsible for any loss, that an exhibitor may incur because of the prevention of any authority, which prevents the use of the premises or any part thereof in any manner whatsoever. The organizers will not be liable and make no guarantee of the number of visitors to the event. Equally, the organizers will not be accountable for the level of commercial activity generated. Vendors must have their own insurance to cover all liabilities and risks. General public liability insurance with a minimum inclusive of $1,000,000 must be carried covering bodily injury and property damage.
